hope that things work out in our fa vor And yeah I love my best friend and sis ter Of course I'd ne ver want to let them go

But life moves o n And fa te works as it works May be one day the two of them

I'll once a gain see them smil ing at me And we'll be go od e nough to have a good ti me If life wants to teach them a lesson then I'll let them learn it if it's giving them true love I'll trust that they've earned it If it crashes and burns I won't say I told you so
