

The Whole of the Moon

♩ = 80

I pic- tured a rain- bow,

Bass

you held it in your hands. I had flash- es, but you saw the plan.

Bass

I wand- ered out in the world for years, while you just stayed in your room. I saw the cres- cent, you saw the whole of the moon. The whole of the moon. Ooh, you were there in the turn- stiles, with the wind at your heels. You stretched for the stars and you know how it feels to reach too high, too far, too soon.

Bass

Bass

You saw the whole of the moon. I was ground- ed while you filled the skies. I was dumb- founded by truth, you cut through lies. I saw the rain- dir- ty val- ley, you saw Bri- ga- doon.

Bass

I saw the cres-cent, you saw the whole of the moon.

Bass

I spoke-a- bout the wings, you just flew. I won-dered, I guessed and I tried.

Bass

You just knew I sighed, but you swooned. I saw the cres-cent, you saw the whole of the moon. The whole of the moon. With a torch in your pock-et, and the wind at your heels, you climbed on the lad-der. And you know how it feels to get too high, too far, too soon. You saw the whole of the moon. The whole of the moon. U-ni-corns and can-non balls, pa-la-ces and piers.

Bass

Bass

Bass

Trum-pets, towers and te-ne-ments, wide o-ceans full of tears. Flags, rags, fer-ry-boats, sci-mi-tars and scarves. Ev-'ry pre-cious dream and vi-sion un-der-neath the stars. Yes, you	climbed on the lad-der with the	wind in your sails. You	came like a com-et,	blaz-ing your trail.
